

Faith

Bible

Colossians 2:6-7	So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.
1 Corinthians 16:13	Be on guard; stand firm in the faith; be men of courage; be strong.
2 Corinthians 5:7	For we walk by faith, not by sight.
Ephesians 2:8	For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith – and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God.
Ephesians 3:17-19	... so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge – that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.
Galatians 2:20	I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.
Galatians 3:26	You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
Galatians 5:22-23	But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.
Genesis 1:1	In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Genesis 1:1
Hebrews 11:1	Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.
Hebrews 11:6	And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.
Hebrews 12:1-2	Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance that race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
James 1:5-6	If any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. But when he asks, he must believe and not doubt, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind.
1 John 5:4	Every child of God can defeat the world, and our faith is what gives us this victory.
Luke 7:50	Your faith has saved you; go in peace.
Mark 9:23	All things are possible to him who believes.
Mark 11:22-23	“Have faith in God,” Jesus answered. “I tell you the truth, if anyone says to this mountain, ‘Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him.”
Matthew 9:29	According to your faith; be it done unto you.
Matthew 25:21	His master said to him, “Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.”
Proverbs 3:3	Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart.
Romans 1:17	The good news tells how God accepts everyone who has faith, but only those who have faith.

2 Timothy 3:14-15	But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, and how from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.
2 Timothy 4:7	I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
Man
Saint Thomas Aquinas	Faith has to do with things that are not seen, and hope with things that are not in hand.
William Adams	Our Lord does not praise the centurion for his amiable care of his servants, nor for his generosity to the Jews, nor for his public spirit, nor for his humility, but for his faith.
Joseph Addison	The person who has a firm trust in the Supreme Being is powerful in his power, wise by his wisdom, happy by his happiness.
Mary Kay Ash	My company mascot is the bumblebee. Because of it's tiny wings and heavy body aerodynamically the bumblebee shouldn't be able to fly. But the bumblebee doesn't know that, so it flies anyway.
W. H. Auden	May it not be that, just as we have to have faith in Him, God has to have faith in us and, considering the history of the human race so far, may it not be that "faith" is even more difficult for Him than it is for us?
James H. Aughey	A firm faith is the best theology; a good life is the best philosophy; a clear conscience the best law; honesty, the best policy, and temperance the best physic.
James H. Aughey	As a weak limb grows stronger by exercise, so will your faith be strengthened by the very efforts you make in stretching it out toward things unseen.
James H. Aughey	Were it not for an unquestioning faith, human progress would be an intolerable burden.
James H. Aughey	Youth, beauty, wit may recommend you to men, but only faith in Jesus Christ can recommend you to God.
Saint Aurelius Augustine	Faith is to believe what we do not see; and the reward of this faith is to see what we believe.
Francis Bacon	Mahomet made the people believe that he would call a hill to him, and from the top of it offer up his prayers for the observers of his law. The people assembled; Mahomet called the hill to come to him, again and again, and when the hill stood still, he was never a whit abashed, but said, "If the hill will not come to Mahomet, Mahomet will go to the hill."
Henry Christopher Bailey	Faith is a higher faculty than reason.
Henry Christopher Bailey	In order to be a realist you must believe in miracles.
Jim Bakker	You don't decide to build a church because you have money in the bank. You build because God says this is what I should do. Faith is the supplier of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen.
Hosea Ballou	Faith, in order to be genuine and of any real value, must be the offspring of that divine love which Jesus manifested when He prayed for His enemies on the cross.
Hosea Ballou	There is one inevitable criterion of judgment touching religious faith in doctrinal matters. Can you reduce it to practice? If not, have none of it.
. Bruce Barton	The ablest men in all walks of modern life are men of faith. Most of them have much more faith than they themselves realize

Francis Beaumont	Faith without works is like a bird without wings; though she may hop with her companions on earth, yet she will never fly with them to heaven; but when both are joined together, then doth the soul mount up to her eternal rest.
Georges Bernanos	Faith is not a thing which one "loses," we merely cease to shape our lives by it.
Book of Common Prayer	An outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace.
Phillips Brooks	The faith which you keep must be a faith that demands obedience, and you can keep it only by obeying it.
Thomas Brooks	Much faith will yield unto us here our heaven, but any faith, if true, will yield us heaven hereafter.
Edward George Earle Lytton Bulwer-Lytton	Strike from mankind the principle of faith, and men would have no more history than a flock of sheep.
Carol Burnett	You have to have faith that there is a reason you go through certain things. I can't say I'm glad to go through pain, but in a way one must, in order to gain courage and really feel joy.
Thomas Carlyle	To us also, through every star, through every blade of grass, is not God made visible if we will open our minds and our eyes.
Oswald Chambers	Faith is deliberate confidence in the character of God whose ways you may not understand at the time.
James Freeman Clarke	All the strength and force of man comes from his faith in things unseen. He who believes is strong; he who doubts is weak. Strong convictions precede great actions. The man strongly possessed of an idea is the master of all who are uncertain or wavering. Clear, deep, living convictions rule the world.
Samuel Taylor Coleridge	Never yet did there exist a full faith in the Divine word which did not expand the intellect, while it purified the heart; which did not multiply the aims and objects of the understanding, while it fixed and simplified those of the desires and feelings.
Charles Caleb Colton	Faith and works are necessary to our spiritual life as Christians, as soul and body are to our natural life as men; for faith is the soul of religion, and works the body.
Annie Dillard	It could be that our faithlessness is a cowering cowardice born of our very smallness, a massive failure of imagination. If we were to judge nature by common sense or likelihood, we wouldn't believe the world existed.
Tryon Edwards	Science has sometimes been said to be opposed to faith, and inconsistent with it. But all science, in fact, rests on a basis of faith, for it assumes the permanence and uniformity of natural laws -- a thing which can never be demonstrated.
Ralph Waldo Emerson	All that I have seen teaches me to trust the Creator for all I have not seen.
Ralph Waldo Emerson	Our faith comes in moments... yet there is a depth in those brief moments which constrains us to ascribe more reality to them than to all other experiences.
Edward Everett	The highest historical probability can be adduced in support of the proposition that, if it were possible to annihilate the Bible, and with it all its influences, we should destroy with it the whole spiritual system of the moral world.
Rev. Frederick William Faber	Faith is letting down our nets into the untransparent deeps, at the Divine command, not knowing what we shall take.
Owen Felltham	Works without faith are like a fish without water, it wants the element it should live in. A building without a basis cannot stand; faith is the foundation, and every good action is as a stone laid.
Viktor E. Frankl	Just as a small fire is extinguished by the storm whereas a large fire is enhanced by it-likewise a weak faith is weakened by predicament and catastrophes whereas a strong faith is strengthened by them.

Mahatma Gandhi	Faith is not something to grasp, it is a state to grow into.
Mahatma Gandhi	I claim to be an average man of less than average ability. I have not the shadow of a doubt that any man or woman can achieve what I have, if he or she would make the same effort and cultivate the same hope and faith.
Kahlil Gibran	Faith is an oasis in the heart which will never be reached by the caravan of thinking.
Henry Giles	It is by faith that poetry, as well as devotion, soars above this dull earth; that imagination breaks through its clouds, breathes a purer air, and lives in a softer light.
Thomas Guthrie	Faith is the backbone of the social and the foundation of the commercial fabric; remove faith between man and man, and society and commerce fall to pieces. There is not a happy home on earth but stands on faith; our heads are pillowed on it, we sleep at night in its arms with greater security for the safety of our lives, peace, and prosperity than bolts and bars can give.
John Haggai	Attempt something so impossible that unless God is in it, it's doomed to failure.
Robert Hall	Faith is a practical habit, which like every other, is strengthened and increased by continual exercise. It is nourished by meditation, by prayer, and the devout perusal of the Scriptures; and the light which it diffuses becomes stronger and clearer by an uninterrupted converse with its object, and a faithful compliance with its dictates.
William Hazlitt	If you think you can win, you can win. Faith is necessary to victory.
Matthew Henry	None live so easily, so pleasantly, as those that live by faith.
Vaclav Hlavaty	The farther we go, the more the ultimate explanation recedes from us, and
Ralph Hodgson	Some things have to be believed to be seen.
Josiah Gilbert Holland	Faith draws the poison from every grief, takes the sting from every loss, and quenches the fire of every pain; and only faith can do it.
Raymond Holliwell	God does not require you to follow His leadings on blind trust. Behold the evidence of an invisible intelligence pervading everything, even your own mind and body.
Oliver Wendell Holmes	It's faith in something and enthusiasm for something that makes life worth living.
Thomas Hartwell Horne	No cloud can overshadow a true Christian but his faith will discern a rainbow in it.
Hermann Jacobi	It is impossible to be a hero in anything unless one is first a hero in faith.
John Paul Jones	If fear is cultivated it will become stronger, if faith is cultivated it will achieve mastery.
John Keble	The childlike faith that asks not sight, waits not for wonder or for sign, believes, because it loves, aright, shall see things greater, things divine.
Charles Kingsley	And we shall be made truly wise if we be content; content, too, not only with what we can understand, but content with what we do not understand--the habit of mind which theologians call--and rightly--faith in God.
Archbishop Robert Leighton	Faith is an humble, self-denying grace; it makes the Christian nothing in himself, and all in God.
David Martyn Lloyd-Jones	Faith is the refusal to panic.
Henry Wadsworth Longfellow	"Patience!" * * * "have faith and thy prayer will be answered!"
Sophia Loren	Getting ahead in a difficult profession requires avid faith in yourself. You must be able to sustain yourself against staggering blows. There is no code of conduct to help beginners. That is why some people with mediocre talent, but with great inner drive, go much further than people with vastly superior talent.

Max L. Lucado	At the beginning of every act of faith, there is often a seed of fear. For great acts of faith are seldom born out of calm calculation.
Martin Luther	Faith is a living, daring confidence in God's grace, so sure and certain that a man could stake his life on it a thousand times.
George MacDonald	A perfect faith would lift us absolutely above fear.
Alexander Maclaren	Given a man full of faith, you will have a man tenacious in purpose, absorbed in one grand object, simple in his motives, in whom selfishness has been driven out by the power of a mightier love, and indolence stirred into unwearied energy.
Edwin Markham	The thing that is incredible is life itself. Why should we be here in this sun-illuminated universe? Why should there be green earth under our feet?
Henry Miller	Back of every creation, supporting it like an arch, is faith. Enthusiasm is nothing: it comes and goes. But if one believes, then miracles occur.
James Montgomery	Faith is the flame that lifts the sacrifice to heaven.
Dwight L. Moody	Faith makes all things possible... love makes all things easy.
Hannah More	If faith produce no works, I see that faith is not a living tree. Thus faith and works together grow, No separate life they never can know. They're soul and body, hand and heart, What God hath joined, let no man part.
William Mountford	Faith is the inspiration of nobleness, it is the strength of integrity; it is the life of love, and is everlasting growth for it; it is courage of soul, and bridges over for our crossing the gulf between worldliness and heavenly-mindedness; and it is the sense of the unseen, without which we could not feel God nor hope for heaven.
George E. Mueller	The beginning of anxiety is the end of faith, and the beginning of true faith is the end of anxiety.
Major Kira Nerys	That's the thing about faith. If you don't have it you can't understand it. And if you do, no explanation is necessary.
Blaise Pascal	Faith is different from proof; the latter is human, the former is a Gift from God.
Blaise Pascal	It is the heart which perceives God and not the reason. That is what faith is: God perceived by the heart, not by the reason.
Pope Gregory I	If the work of God could be comprehended by reason, it would be no longer wonderful, and faith would have no merit if reason provided proof.
Franklin D. Roosevelt	The only limit to our realization of tomorrow will be our doubts of today. Let us move forward with strong and active faith.
John Ruskin	Out of suffering comes the serious mind; out of salvation, the grateful heart; out of endurance, fortitude; out of deliverance faith.
Samuel Rutherford	I wonder many times that ever a child of God should have a sad heart, considering what the Lord is preparing for him.
Antoine De Saint-Exupery	It is only with the heart that one can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye.
William Salter	As the essence of courage is to stake one's life on a possibility, so the essence of faith is to believe that the possibility exists.
Friedrich Schlegel	In actual life every great enterprise begins with and takes its first forward step in faith.
Marquise de Sevigne	Faith creates the virtues in which it believes.
Shakespeare	There are no tricks in plain simple faith.
Samuel M. Shoemaker	Eternal life does not begin with death; it begins with faith.
Source Unknown	Faith is not the lazy notion that a man may with careless confidence throw his burden upon the Saviour and trouble himself no further, a pillow upon which he lulls his conscience to sleep, till he drops into perdition; but a living and vigorous principle, working by love, and inseparably connected with true repentance as its motive and with holy obedience as its fruits.

Source Unknown	Fear knocked at the door. Faith answered. No one was there.
Source Unknown	There must be balance in life between our actions and our faith in God. We should use our minds and our resources to obey God, while at the same time trusting God for the outcome.
Source Unknown	What we believe, we must believe wholly and without reserve; wherefore the only perfect and satisfying object of faith is God. A faith that sets bounds to itself, that will believe so much and no more, that will trust thus far and no farther, is none.
Source Unknown	Faith is the revealer of knowledge; it is the office of reason to defend that knowledge and to preserve it pure. Independent knowledge--the knowledge that comes not through faith--whether it be of things earthly or things heavenly, never can be ours.
Source Unknown	As our faith increases, so does our ability to obey.
Source Unknown	Every tomorrow has two handles. We can take hold of it by the handle of anxiety, or by the handle of faith.
Source Unknown	Faith is like electricity. You can't see it, but you can see the light.
Source Unknown	Faith is: dead to doubts, dumb to discouragements, blind to impossibilities.
Source Unknown	Have faith in your dreams and someday Your rainbow will come smiling through No matter how your heart is grieving If you keep on believing the dream that you wish will come true.
John R. Stott	Faith is a reasoning trust, a trust which reckons thoughtfully and confidently upon the trustworthiness of God.
William M. Thackeray	It's not dying for faith that's so hard, it's living up to it.
Leo Tolstoy	Faith is the force of life.
Elton Trueblood	Faith is not belief without proof, but trust without reservation.
Henry Clay Trumbull	Not prayer without faith, nor faith without prayer, but prayer in faith, is the cost of spiritual gifts and graces.
Martin Farquhar Tupper	Faith may rise into miracles of might, as some few wise men have shown; faith may sink into credulities of weakness, as the mass of fools have witnessed.
Virgil	They can because they think they can.
William Wake	That faith which is required of us is then perfect when it produces in us a fiduciary assent to whatever the Gospel has revealed.
Lech Walesa	Deep faith eliminates fear.
Simone Weil	The mysteries of faith are degraded if they are made into an object of affirmation and negation, when in reality they should be an object of contemplation.
Archbishop Richard Whately	As the flower is before the fruit, so is faith before good works.
William Whewell	Those who have obtained the farthest insight into Nature have been, in all ages, firm believers in God.
Ellen Gould White	Talk unbelief, and you will have unbelief; but talk faith, and you will have faith. According to the seed sown will be the harvest.
John Greenleaf Whittier	Through this dark and stormy night Faith beholds a feeble light Up the blackness streaking; Knowing God's own time is best, In a patient hope I rest, For the full day-breaking!
Daniel Wilson	Faith is the root of all good works. A root that produces nothing is dead.
Thomas Wilson	Our life must answer for our faith.
George Edward Woodberry	The willingness to take risks is our grasp of faith.
John Wooden	There are many things that are essential to arriving at true peace of mind, and one of the most important is faith, which cannot be acquired without prayer.

Edward Young

Faith builds a bridge from this world to the next.
